

EXPAND YOUR GRADUATE EDUCATION WITH LAW COURSES THROUGH

PURDUE UNIVERSITY GLOBAL

Count Online Law Electives Toward Your Degree

Learn how the law and regulations impact your area of study by taking a law elective course—or by adding a law microcredential to your resume.

Concord Law School at Purdue University Global is proud to partner with Purdue West Lafayette to offer you the opportunity to take elective law courses online and potentially apply those credits to your graduate degree.

Why Concord Law School?

LEADER IN ONLINE LEARNING

Founded in 1998 as the world's first online law school, Concord continues to innovate and expand online access to high-quality legal education. Concord Law School is part of Purdue University Global, a public, nonprofit institution within the Purdue University system.

CUTTING-EDGE CURRICULUM

Courses are 100% online, interactive, and taught by faculty at the forefront of online legal instruction. Many courses focus on specialized legal knowledge and skills, with the support of individualized feedback and guidance from faculty.

HIGH FLEXIBILITY, LOW COST

Purdue West Lafayette students enrolled in a graduate-level degree program[^] may be able to apply Concord Law School credits⁺ to their degree plan of study⁺ with a variety of savings, including:

- Concord's standard $295 per term resource fee is waived
- No out-of-pocket cost for full-time students on banded tuition (full-time flat rate) or Purdue West Lafayette fee remit (most assistantships)
- 10% off per credit hour cost ($464 per credit instead of $515) for cash-pay or part-time students
- Purdue employees can also apply their Gift of Knowledge benefit (50% off, or $232 per credit)
