

A*STAR INVESTIGATORSHIP

A prestigious award for young scientific talent

The A*STAR Investigatorship aims to support and promote early independent career development of the next generation of world leaders in scientific research.

Research Grant: SGD$6 Million over 6 years for the successful A*STAR Investigator.

Prestigious Position: Tenable at one of A*STAR's Research Institutes.

Remuneration & Benefits: Attractive and Competitive.

Call for Entries 2014 is NOW OPEN!

Application opens: 15 May 2014

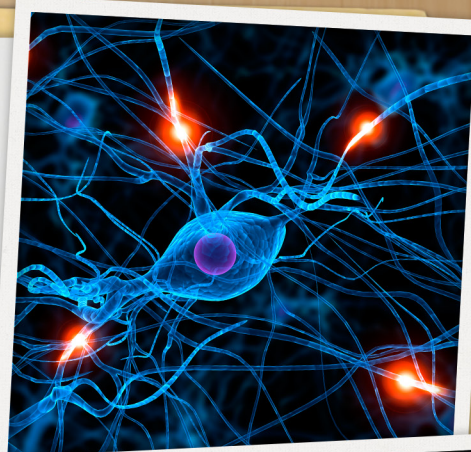

Closing date: 14 August 2014 [2359, (GMT+08:00)]

Applicants should ideally

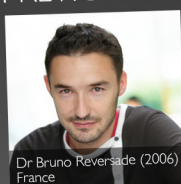

- be 35 years or younger
- have demonstrated a strong ability and creativity in research

E-mail to: ASTAR_Investigatorship@a-star.edu.sg

For application and information, please visit www.a-star.edu.sg/Investigatorships

PREVIOUS AWARDEES

Dr Bruno Reversade (2006)
France

Dr Kang Congbao (2008)
Singapore

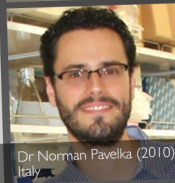

Dr Prabha Sampath (2008)
India

Dr Martin Saerbeck (2009)
Germany

Dr Jonathan Loh (2010)
Singapore

Dr Norman Pavelka (2010)
Italy

Dr Joel Yang (2009)
Singapore

Dr Giulia Rancati (2010)
Italy

2014 A*STAR Investigatorship Selection Panel

Prof Sir David Lane
Chief Scientist, A*STAR

Prof Edward Holmes
Executive Chairman, NMRC
Deputy Chairman, Translational and
Clinical Sciences Group, BMRC

Prof Sir Keith O'Nions
President & Rector, Imperial College
London

Dr Tadataka Yamada
Chief Medical & Scientific Officer,
Executive Vice President & Board
Member, Takeda Pharmaceuticals

Prof Isaac Ben-Israel
Chairman, Israeli Space Agency,
National Council for Research and Development

Prof Raj. Thampuran
Managing Director, A*STAR

Prof Sir John O' Reilly
Director General of Knowledge and Innovation, Department for Business,
Innovation and Skills
Chairman SERC, A*STAR

Agency for Science, Technology and Research

SINGAPORE