

NSAC Newsletter

Committee Meetings Begin

NSAC wants to get your opinion. Every week Wednesday at 12pm, join NSAC for committee meetings in BRK 2001. These meetings will discuss events we can all participate in during the semester. We have lots of ideas for events. Let us know what you want so we can spend money on them.

NSAC Sports Founded

Want to root for NSAC sports teams? Now you can! NSAC Basketball is officially here! They play every Wednesday at 8pm at Black/Gold field in the Corec. If you are interested in Softball or 4v4 Volleyball, please let us know at NSAC@purdue.edu.

NSAC is still looking to sponsor teams ($30 value). This offer is limited. Email us for details.

Coffee Hour Guest Speakers Needed!

We are looking for grad students who are interested sharing their experiences at Birck. We want to know what you are working on, what you are working with, and more! The following are all allowed.

- Published Papers
- Lab Tours
- Case Studies

Research talks chosen will receive a $5 Starbucks gift-card as a thank you!

Upcoming Events

Coffee Hour

1-26: Material characteristics governing in-plane phonon-polariton thermal

-by Jacob M.

2-2: Microneedles for Bacterial Inactivation in Chronic Wounds

-by Ash K.

Academic

1-30: Fab Forum

-by Justin Wirth

1-31 Academic Committee

Social

1-24 Social Committee

1-24 NSAC IM Basketball Game

1-31 NSAC IM Basketball Game

2-1 Mug Printing at Knowledge Lab