

“The Public Interest in Private Universities: Lessons from Cornell”

Sponsored by the Steering Committee of the Purdue University Decadal Funding Plan Initiative

Thursday, June 9

2:30-4 p.m.

Burton D. Morgan Center for Entrepreneurship, Room 121

A live webcast during the event will be available at:

mms://video1.itap.purdue.edu/Provost (requires Windows Media Player)

Kent Fuchs

Provost, Cornell University

Ronald Seeber

Senior Vice Provost, Cornell University

Kent Fuchs was appointed Cornell's provost in 2009. He served as the Joseph Silbert Dean of Engineering from 2002-2008. Prior to joining the Cornell faculty, he was the head of the School of Electrical and Computer Engineering and the Michael J. and Catherine R. Birck Distinguished Professor at Purdue University, and a faculty member at the University of Illinois. Ronald Seeber is Cornell's senior vice provost and a professor of industrial and labor relations. He has been a member of the Cornell faculty since 1980, and also serves as associate director of the Martin and Laurie Scheinman Institute on Conflict Resolution.