

NOVEMBER 10-12, 2021

A photograph of the Purdue University archway, a large stone structure with a central arch and two side pillars. The archway is set against a backdrop of a brick building and trees under a blue sky with light clouds. The text "PURDUE UNIVERSITY" is visible on the top of the arch.

24th Annual Colloquium on International Engineering Education

The 24th Annual Colloquium on International Engineering Education (ACIEE) will be held virtually from Wednesday through Friday, November 10-12, 2021, from 9:20, am - 2:30 pm EST daily. This year we have invited academic and industry leaders to share their perspectives on international engineering education post the COVID-19 pandemic. Researchers and practitioners will be presenting their experiences and findings on assessment, adapting to uncertainty, improving program resilience, and exploring new learning modalities and opportunities. Program details and registration information can be found on the colloquium website: <https://engineering.purdue.edu/ME/ACIEE>.

Program highlights and last-minute updates:

- Dr. Marcelo Korc from the Pan American Health Organization and Provost Steven McLaughlin from Georgia Tech will give Keynote speeches at 9:30 am on Wednesday (11/10) and Thursday (11/11), respectively.
- A panel of industry and government leaders will discuss "Leveraging Humanities Informed Engineering Skills in Industry" at 9:30 am on Friday (11/12).
- In collaboration with the NEH Lecture Series: Engineering Through a Humanistic Lens, two additional events will be available to all participants from 1:40 pm - 2:30 pm (US EST) on November 10-11.
- Please join us at the Closing Reception on Friday, 12:45-1:30 pm, where information and outlook for the 2022 ACIEE will be presented.

Registration fee:

Individual	$50
Students	Free
Group (up to 5)	$150

REGISTER NOW!

