

Center for Instructional Excellence (CIE) Brown Bag Sessions

Center for Instructional Excellence Brown Bag Sessions

The Center for Instructional Excellence invites Purdue instructors teaching this fall in Indianapolis for a series of brown bag lunch sessions on Thursdays in SL 165. The CIE lunch sessions are an opportunity for faculty to gather and discuss successes and lessons learned in the classroom. We can also use our sessions to talk about our first semester teaching for Purdue University. Engage with us as we promote excellence in teaching by sharing our experiences across disciplines.

Dates: Thursdays from Sept. 5 through Dec. 5

Time: Noon – 1:15 p.m.

Location: SL 165 conference room

Coffee and pastries will be provided.

For any questions, please email: tbirdwel@purdue.edu

The Center for Instructional Excellence (CIE) advances and promotes transformative, evidence-based instruction for academic success at Purdue and beyond. Under the direction of the Office of the Provost, CIE works with faculty, graduate teaching assistants, and staff to support innovative teaching in all modalities and foster a campus culture of student-centered learning. For information, visit: <https://www.purdue.edu/innovativelearning/>