

PREPARING FOR THE DOD AFOSR & ONR YOUNG FACULTY AWARDS

LISA NIELSEN

Associate Director of Research Development

CHRIS BRINTON

Elmore Associate
Professor of ECE

BABAK ANASORI

Reilly Rising Star Associate
Professor of MSE and ME

Open to tenure-track faculty who have received their doctorate in the past seven years, the ONR YIP offers $750,000 over three years for research.

Led by Lisa Nielsen and panelists Chris Brinton and Babak Anasori, this workshop will:

- help prepare potential applicants for the 2027 cycle
- provide best practices for how to appeal to ORN S&T research program topics
- learn how to plan a compelling proposal.

Attendees will leave with a basis for how to strategize their proposed project and key actions to improve their competitiveness. We will also cover the AFOSR YIP as well.

MONDAY, MARCH 30TH, 2 PM - 3 PM
IN PERSON IN INDIANAPOLIS, INUL 1126

This will be in person at 755 W. Michigan St., Indianapolis, IN 46202 in University Library Room 1126. A remote link will be shared for West Lafayette attendees.
