Welcome to San Diego!

This city is well-known for its accepting attitude toward the LGBTQ+ community, so you are likely to have a great experience wherever you are in the area. Just like in other big cities, remember to explore San Diego with your LGBTQ+ and ally friends to have a fun and safe time being out and proud!

Gaslamp Quarter

The Gaslamp Quarter is the neighborhood within walking distance from the San Diego Convention Center (SDCC). (See gaslamp.org for more details.) It's a major attraction for conference attendees for dining and nightlife. You will find excellent offerings throughout the Gaslamp Quarter, but we highlight below the following locations that contribute to the LGBTQ+ community through the annual San Diego Pride event.

- Subway
611 K St, Suite A (0.3mi from SDCC)
