Re: William E. Boeing Distinguished Lecture

You are invited to attend the School of Aeronautics and Astronautics William E. Boeing Distinguished Lecture.

Speaker: Lieutenant General Patrick J. O'Reilly
Director, Missile Defense Agency
Date: February 28, 2012
Place: Eliza Fowler Hall, Stewart Center
Lecture: 4:00 p.m. – 5:15 p.m.
Reception: 5:15 p.m. – 6:00 p.m. (Stewart Center, West Foyer)

Lieutenant General Patrick J. O'Reilly is the Director for the Missile Defense Agency (MDA), Office of the Secretary of Defense, Pentagon, Washington, DC. In this capacity, he oversees MDA's worldwide mission to develop a capability to defend deployed forces, the United States, Allies, and friends against ballistic missile attacks.

The William E. Boeing Distinguished Lecture was established in 1999 to honor the memory of the founder of the Boeing Company, William E. Boeing, and to acknowledge the strong relationship between the Boeing Company and Purdue University.

We are very fortunate to have Lt. Gen. Patrick O'Reilly as the Boeing Lecturer, and we would like to give him a warm welcome by having a large turnout to show our appreciation. Please let your friends and colleagues know of the Boeing Lecture and add it to your calendars. For more information regarding the Lecture, please contact Dr. Dan DeLaurentis in the School of Aeronautics and Astronautics at 494-0694 or email ddelaure@purdue.edu if you have any questions.
